I. EXHIBITS EXAMINED:

- C. Copy of a New York State 1990 Form IT-201 showing an Adjusted Gross Income of $5,561,728.19 bearing questioned written Signatures, Dates and Occupations on page 2. These documents are further identified by Bates numbers DN00432 and DN00433.
- D. Copy of a New York State 1990 Form IT-201 showing an Adjusted Gross Income of $1,323,916.85 bearing questioned written Signatures, Dates and Occupations on page 2. These documents are further identified by Bates numbers TH466 and TH467.

II. PROBLEM:

To determine the authenticity of the Exhibit A, B, C and D documents listed above.

III. RESULTS OF EXAMINATION:

- The handwritten text appearing on Exhibits A and B, with the exception of the signatures appearing on page 2 of Exhibits A and B, have been identified as having been written by a common writer.
- 2. The Signatures, written Dates and Occupations appearing at the bottom of page 2 on Exhibits A and B have been identified as being identical. This means that the bottom portion of one of the two documents was not originally written and contains a reproduction of the writing that originated from the other document.
- 3. An examination of page 2 of the Exhibit A and B documents has revealed that the bottom section of Exhibit B does not contain originally written text and that Exhibit A is the source of the text that was reproduced on to Exhibit B.

Peter B. Schalk, Esquire Page 3 of 4

May 29, 2008

- 4. The handwritten text appearing on page 1 and the handwritten text appearing on lines 31 through 80 along with the written Dates that appears on Exhibits C and D have been identified as having been written by a common writer. This is the same individual who wrote the text identified in conclusion #1.
- 5. The Signatures and written Dates appearing at the bottom of page 2 on Exhibits C and D have been identified as being identical. This means that the bottom portion of one of the two documents was not originally written and contains a reproduction of the writing that originated from the other document.
- 6. An examination of page 2 of the Exhibit C and D documents has revealed that the bottom section of Exhibit D does not contain originally written text and that Exhibit C is the source of the text that was reproduced on to Exhibit D.

IV. REMARKS:

The attached Comparison Chart illustration contains an example, but not all, of the misalignments found on page 2 of the Exhibit B and D documents when compared to the written text appearing on page 2 of the Exhibit A and C documents. This misalignment in the printed text demonstrates that portions of the originally written text appearing on Exhibits A and C were reproduced onto Exhibits B and D through what is commonly referred to as a "cut and paste" technique.

I have not attached comparison chart illustrations that demonstrate that the written text appearing at the bottom of Exhibits A & B and C & D contain identical writing as listed in paragraphs 2 and 4 under Results of Examination. If it becomes necessary to render testimony on this matter, the appropriate Comparison Chart illustration must be produced in advance of any anticipated testimony.

IV. REMARKS:

The conclusions rendered in this report were based upon the copies submitted being true and accurate reproductions of original exhibits and the questioned hand printing, handwriting and signatures having been naturally written.
